Dear Mr. Morabito:

Thank you for meeting with Councilmembers Jennifer Ramos, Ray Lopez and I, during our recent trip to Washington D.C. on October 19-21, 2009. We sincerely appreciate the time you invested to visit with members of our Intergovernmental Relations Council Committee to discuss significant City initiatives.

We are excited about the prospect of collaborating with you and members of our Congressional delegation on federal initiatives that have a direct impact on San Antonio, the seventh largest city in the United States.

We are dedicated to making our city a model for the nation as an innovative and progressive community with a vibrant economy, superior schools, a clean environment, and safe, sustainable neighborhoods in which our history and cultural attractions are enjoyed, preserved and protected.

Again, thank you for meeting with us. I hope you will call on me when you come to San Antonio and allow us the opportunity to showcase an array of multi-faceted projects in our community.

Sincerely,
